Kippen news

WI have Canadian Industries meeting

By Rena Caldwell
W. F. meets
Kippen East Women's Institute held their Canadian Industries meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. J. F. Bell on Oct. 19. Mrs. Robert Kinsman gave the motto, "Go often to the home of a friend or neighbour for weeds choke an unused path" and concluded with a poem "My Neighbour".
The roll call was, "name a simple invention". A silent sale of homemade articles was conducted by Mrs. Bell and realized about $15. Mrs. Charles Eyre gave current events, Mrs. Al Hoggarth, the president, gave an interesting poem, "the world fair farmer".
Courtesy remarks were given by Mrs. Charles Eyre. The lunch committee consisted of Mrs. John Sinclair and Mrs. Wm. McDowell.

An invitation to meet with Hurondale was accepted, and Mrs. Grace Drummond gave the report of the rally. Mrs. Al Hoggarth read Mrs. Connolly's report of the area convention, and a report of the workshop.
Personals
Lorne McBride is a patient in Seaforth Hospital. Mrs. John Wood underwent surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, London.
Stephen McGregor, son of Mrs. and Mrs. James McGregor and Robert son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant McGregor are making good progress in University Hospital, London following a serious accident on Tuesday last.
Janice Baillie, Brodhagen, visited relatives in the area on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivan Cooper are the proud grandparents of a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Cooper, London.
