Horticulturalists Hear of Trial Association

The Horticultural Society met last Monday for an open meeting in the Community Hall.

The president, Mrs. Dorothy Grange opened with a poem, followed by song with Mrs. Donald Haines as pianist. She welcomed all to the meeting and mouth organ solos were played by Mr. Ross Robinson accompanied by Mrs. Haines.
Mrs. Grange introduced the guest speaker Mr. Heinz Hoernig of Benmiller. His topic was the Maitland Trail Association which was established in 1975 by the ministry of natural resources. He told about the trail from Goderich to Auburn along the banks of the Maitland River and showed interesting pictures and many wild flowers that are found along the trail at all seasons of the year. He stated that in the near future it is hoped to continue the trail up to Wingham along the banks of this picturesque river.

Mr. Donald Haines thanked Mr. Hoernig and presented him with a gift.
The minutes of the executive meeting were read by the secretary Mrs. Tom Haggitt. A letter was read from the Blyth Horticultural Society inviting all to their meeting on October 17 at 8 p.m. when Miss Martha Velhuis of Dundas will be the guest speaker.
A letter regarding the Indoor Gardening course was read and leaders will try and go. The Family Night in November was discussed and the executive will plan this event. The nominating committee Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Ernest Durnin and Mrs.

John Durnin were asked to prepare the slate of officers for 1980. The financial statement was given by Mrs. Eleanor Bradnock.
The roll call was answered by each member receiving a hyacinth bulb for winter blooming. A vote of thanks was given to the committee who prepared the float for the 125th birthday party and those who put up the arms and the flower baskets. Also special thanks to Mr. Robert Worsell and Mrs. Grange for taking the baskets down.
A beautiful display of chrysanthemums and roses and other fall flowers brought by the members were enjoyed. The meeting was closed and a smorgasbord lunch was prepared by Mrs. Ross Robinson and Mrs. Tom Lawlor.

Huron WI groups meet

The 28th Huron County Women's Institute (WI) rally was on October 1 at the Elimvale United Church, with Huron South District WI in charge.

The president Mrs. Hilda Payne was chairman and the Elimvale WI was in charge of registration. The meeting was opened with Mrs. Philip Johns at the piano and Mrs. Ross Skinner welcomed everyone on behalf of the Elimvale Branch.
Greetings were brought from Huron East by Mrs. William Humphreys of Walton, Huron West by Mrs. William Porter of Goderich Township and Huron South by Mrs. Payne.
The minutes of the meeting last year were read by the secretary-treasurer Mrs. James Armstrong of Brussels. She read a letter of thanks from the Ministry of Children's Services for the Bursary of $692.75 to assist in the education of a child under their care and also the Child Abuse Program. A letter was read from Mrs. Leona Lockhart of Huronview Auxiliary asking for donations to the Fall Tea on October 16.

Mrs. Armstrong gave the financial statement, showing a balance of $335.36 along with the $1,500 from the Plowing Match. The auditor Mrs. Laura Lucas gave her report and Mrs. Elva Jacques, secretary of Huron East, reported 11 Senior Branches and one Junior Institute. Mrs. Joyce Pepper of Huron South reported nine Senior Branches and Mrs. Richard Buchanan reported 12 Senior Branches.
The roll call was taken and nearly 100 attended from all parts of the County and the collection was taken by the Huronvale Branch.

The report of the Home Economist Grace Bird was read by Mrs. Mac Hodgert. She told that over 1,100 had completed the Needlepoint course last winter and that the indoor gardening course was set and had received a very good response. The food project, Common Sense to Good Nutrition, will be held in November.
It was agreed that the bursary fund remain at 75 cents per member and it was decided that the $1,500 from the Plowing Match be invested and the interest be used to help the Bursary Fund. The $17.66 was added to the Pennies for Friendship.

The Members of the Elimvale branch served a smorgasbord lunch and the afternoon session was opened by the Dashwood WI who gave two readings.
The guest speaker, Miss Iris Castle of St. Lucia, New Zealand was introduced by Mrs. David Treebner of Kippen.
Miss Castle showed interesting slides of New Zealand and told about the lifestyle on that continent, where she has been a missionary from the Mid-Mission of the Baptist Church. She was thanked by Mrs. Harold Smith of Zurich.
The highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of the Huron County Scholarship to Miss Anne Dearing of Exeter. As she is attending the University of Waterloo, her mother accepted the scholarship and thanked everyone on behalf of her daughter.
